“BIOMECHANICS~
How the Rider Shapes the Horse”

A USDF University Session with
Susan Hoffman Peacock

APRIL 23-25, 2010 ~ AUCHMEDDAN STABLES, LTD, 4945 MINK RD, PATASKALA, OHIO

Susan Hoffman Peacock is a National Clinician, USDF 4th Level Certified Instructor/Trainer, USDF Silver Medalist and National Champion. She owns and operates the beautiful Hidden River Ranch in Corona, California. This California native has spent her life taking advantage of some remarkable learning opportunities. She has worked with wonderful trainers such as, Johann Hinnemann, Mette Rosencrantz, Betsy Steiner and Eicke Von Velthiem. She currently is working with dressage master Conrad Schumacher and James Shaw to study body mechanics. Susan has her own training system S.P.U.R.S. (Susan Peacock Ultimate Riding System) that includes goal setting, lesson planning and organizational skills. Susan is very proud of the work that she does with her clients, horses in training as well as her very successful apprentice program. Susan is a very popular clinician and guest lecturer. She can be found teaching USDF Adult Camps, USPC Clinics and supporting the NAYR throughout the year.

USDF University Package includes unlimited admittance to clinic and training sessions Friday- Sunday, as well participation in Saturday’s 4:00 pm hands-on workshop at Auchmeddan Stable, and 7 pm lecture at Donatos Pizza in Pataskala. Prices are for pre-admission only. Spaces are limited so first come, first serve. Auditing on Saturday includes auditing the 4:00 pm workshop. Checks made to MODA.
